Summary

Location: Basel, Switzerland or London, United Kingdom #LI-Hybrid Are you an IP professional looking for an exciting opportunity to lead and manage IP activities in the field of Oncology? Join our dynamic team as we strive to ensure the highest quality and successful implementation of patent and regulatory exclusivity litigation strategies for our innovative commercial and later-stage development products in the Hematology therapeutic area on a global scale. As a key player in our Commercial IP Hematology team, you will have the chance to showcase your expertise and contribute to the advancement of groundbreaking treatments worldwide. If you are passionate about IP, thrive in a fast-paced environment, and are committed to driving success in the pharmaceutical industry, we want to hear from you!

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement highest quality patent and regulatory exclusivity strategies for commercial and later-stage development products in the Hematology therapeutic area worldwide, including litigations, EPO oppositions, due diligences, and third-party strategies.
- Lead or support complex and high-impact patent and regulatory exclusivity litigations for commercial and later-stage development products in the Hematology therapeutic area, including coordination and management of outside counsel, ensuring the use of best litigation practices, and that litigation is of the highest quality, is consistent across the portfolio of matters, and is appropriately reported and budgeted.
- Build relationships with internal Hematology business partners, and provide clear, informed, and strategic counseling on all aspects of patent and regulatory exclusivity issues relating to commercial and later-stage development products in the Hematology therapeutic area.
- Role-modeling collaboration and problem-solving approaches, and training and coaching IP colleagues on best practices and highest-quality litigation strategies.
- Be a highly contributing member of the Commercial IP team and collaborate with other Novartis IP and legal colleagues to ensure all IP objectives are met.

What you'll bring to the role:

Essential Requirements:

- Life science university degree (e.g. in chemical sciences, biological sciences, or chemical engineering)
- European Patent Attorney or Law Degree from law school in Europe (including the UK and Switzerland)
- Post qualification experience in IP litigation and/or European Patent Office (EPO) opposition role in private or corporate practice (in house and/or pharmaceutical experience preferred)
- Proficiency in English (written and spoken)

You'll receive:

You can find everything you need to know about our benefits and rewards in the Novartis Life Handbook. Thrive Together \(novartis.com\)
