Zusammenfassung

We're a team of dedicated and smart people united by a drive to achieve together. You will lead executive talent scouting for a subset of critical roles that matter the most, aligned with both the People & Organization and Talent strategies. As an individual contributor you will have direct partnerships with the business, critical for success is to stay tightly aligned with the members of the Talent & Transformation, Talent Management and Talent Acquisition Leadership Teams. You will report to the Global Head of Precision Talent & Executive Scouting.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Drive the pipelining strategy of internal & external talent for a subset of enterprise value roles and as input into talent reviews, with updates to business and P&O (HR) stakeholders.
- Build relationships with and vet talent for a subset of enterprise value roles with high touch candidate experience, refine talent pipelines and leverage continuous candidate engagement opportunities. Foster more business leader-led engagement with prioritized talent
- Leads executive recruiting for active Novartis Top Leader (NTL) roles in partnership with key interface partners. Role models the clear delineations between Precision Talent & Pipelining on the enterprise level, in the units, and to Talent Acquisition - that the business will understand
- Promotes our highest standards in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI), ensures that candidate pipelines and interview panels are balanced, and report outcomes periodically.
- Understands key markets trends and disseminate external insights with relevant internal parties, especially talent insights, strategic workforce planning & organizational development
- Drive the shared identity of precision talent & executive scouting within talent management, combining the former internally focused succession planning and externally focused scouting
- Increase transparency of pipelines, considering confidentiality; smoothen practical handovers across teams.
- Acts as an ambassador to both internal and external talents

What you'll bring to the role:

Essential Criteria:

- Bachelor Degree required in business administration, social science, computer science, I/O psychology, behavioral economics, mathematics, or political science or related field
- Proven work experience in strategic talent management or acquisition with demonstrated measurable results in work with C-suite executives, preferably in a multinational corporation

- Previous experience in pharmaceuticals / life sciences to understand the value chain and translate business strategy into differentiated talent plans.
- Strong stakeholder and relationship management, with highly professional internal and external networking, preferably with strong internal / external advocacy and sponsorship
- Proven ability to navigate in a matrix environment and leading others without formal authority
- Fluency in English required with excellent oral and written communication skills

Desirable Criteria:

- Advanced degree (MBA / Master of Business Administration)
- Previous work experience in executive search or best in class inhouse talent acquisition or scouting team with executive search focus advantageous (Global level and across functions)
