Resumen

This is a field-based and remote opportunity supporting Area Business Leaders in an assigned region. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support for this role. Please only apply if this location is accessible for you.

The Regional Director (RD) is a visionary leader tasked with elevating the Customer Engagement organization to a peak of excellence. This role demands an inspiring, strategic thinker who will guide their regional team in surpassing their organizational goals. The RD will be responsible for developing and implementing the Regional Customer Engagement Strategy and collaborating with cross-functional partners (Marketing, Medical, Patient Services, Market Access). Additionally, the RD will oversee and communicate key performance indicators as outlined by the brand strategy and tactics, taking prompt and decisive action to address underperformance and replicate successes regionally and nationally.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Build best-in-class, diverse teams through talent acquisition, development, and succession planning.
- Deliver region sales targets while collaborating nationally, to secure achievement of organizational objectives and establish a cadence of accountability for the team, communicating, and supervising KPIs and engaging all levels of performance on the team.
- Sets an example for all team members by fostering a collective vision, articulating clear expectations, cultivating a sense of accountability, empowering others to act, and enhancing or improving processes by questioning the current norms.
- Create, execute, and oversee a regional business plan focused on customer needs in partnership with Area Business Leaders and cross-functional teams to enhance the customer experience and increase product demand among all healthcare providers (HCPs), key accounts, and Systems of Care (SoC).
- Act as an integral part of the national leadership team, actively aiding in the enhancement of regional capabilities, business performance, team growth, and organizational culture.
- Ensure that teams carry out their duties with honesty, utmost professionalism, and integrity, in alignment with the Novartis Code of Ethics and all relevant policies and procedures.
- Promote regional budget allocation and enhance regional budgets by guaranteeing the use of various resources, including strategic face-to-face interactions and Omni Channel resources, customized to meet regional needs.
- Fosters an environment where team members are motivated to voice their ideas, address challenges, collaborate, experiment, and view failures as steppingstones, while ensuring that the entire team is aligned with and committed to the NPC Code of Ethics and all relevant policies.

- Support team members by crafting development plans, nurturing their growth, and continually improving their performance.
- Utilize analytics platforms to guide decision-making and pinpoint areas of risk and potential.

Essential Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree (preferably in Life Sciences, Pharmacy, or business-related field).
- 10+ years of diverse commercial pharmaceutical experience, with 5+ years' experience as a first-line sales manager with strong demonstrated critical thinking and enterprise attitude (e.g., brand management, market access, or account leadership experience).
- Proven track-record of attracting, developing, and retaining diverse talent and building dedicated teams, with strong cross-functional leadership abilities to collaborate effectively with various groups and cross-functional partners.
- Built and completed business and incentive plans in highly sophisticated sales environments, has demonstrated operational skills, solid financial and business acumen, and has strategic and analytical thinking demonstrated by key projects/initiatives and managing budgets.
- Candidate must reside within region, or within a reasonable daily commuting distance of 100 miles from region boarder. Ability to travel 60-80% over a broad geography is required, with the ability to drive and/or fly within the territory. Must have a valid driver's license.

Desirable Requirements:

- Proven leadership as a second-line sales manager.
- Experience in a cross-functional role such as market access, reimbursement, or account management; and understands payer landscapes, buy and bill and specialty pharmacy.

Driving is an Essential Function of this Role: Meaning it is fundamental to the purpose of this job and cannot be eliminated. Because driving is an essential function of the role, you must have a fully valid and unrestricted driver's license to be qualified for this role. The company provides reasonable accommodations for otherwise qualified individuals with medical restrictions if an accommodation can be provided without eliminating the essential function of driving.

COVID-19 Vaccine Policy (customer-facing roles only): While Novartis does not require vaccination for COVID-19 or proof of a recent negative test result for COVID-19 at this time, employees working in customer-facing roles must adhere to and comply with customers' (such as hospitals, physician offices, etc.) credentialing guidelines, which may require vaccination. As required by applicable law, Novartis will consider requests for reasonable accommodation for those unable to be vaccinated. This requirement is subject to applicable state and local laws and may not be applicable to employees working in certain jurisdictions. Please send accommodation requests to Eh.occupationalhealth@novartis.com.

Novartis Compensation and Benefit Summary: The pay range for this position at commencement of employment is expected to be between $194,600 and $361,400/year; however, while salary ranges are effective from 1/1/25 through 12/31/25, fluctuations in the job market may necessitate adjustments to pay ranges during this period. Further, final pay determinations will depend on various factors, including, but not limited to geographical location, experience level, knowledge, skills, and abilities. The total compensation package for this position may also include other elements, including a sign-on bonus, restricted stock units, and discretionary awards in addition to a full range of medical, financial, and/or other benefits (including 401(k) eligibility and various paid time off benefits, such as vacation, sick time, and parental leave), dependent on the position offered. Details of participation in these benefit plans will be provided if an employee receives an offer of employment. If hired, employee will be in an “at-will position” and the Company reserves the right to modify base salary (as well as any other discretionary payment or compensation program) at any time, including for reasons related to individual performance, Company or individual department/team performance, and market factors.

For Field Roles with a Dedicated Training Period: The individual hired for this role will be required to successfully complete certain initial training, including home study, in eight (8) or fewer hours per day and forty (40) or fewer hours per week.

Company will not sponsor visas for this position.
