Résumé

Are you ready to make a difference in the pharmaceutical industry? We are seeking a motivated and skilled Digital Marketing Associate to support our Brand Team across Immunology, In Market Brands and across our New Zealand team in implementing our strategic marketing plan. Join our dynamic team and play a crucial role in growing our brand through innovative digital marketing strategies. This is a 12-month contract.

About the Role

Responsibilities:

- Collaborate with the Brand Team to develop and execute the digital marketing plan.
- Gain insights into customer preferences and engagement channels to ensure targeted and effective communication.
- Interpret digital analytics to inform content planning for digital engagement.
- Support content development activities in collaboration with the local Marketing Team
- Analyse content effectiveness using performance and engagement data to drive data-driven decision-making and optimize campaigns.
- Ensure compliance with internal processes regarding content planning, creation, production, MLR review, and distribution.

Your Experience:

- Proven experience in operations management, project management, and advertising campaigns
- Strong understanding of brand management and brand marketing.
- Previous work experience in the pharmaceutical industry is a must
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills in English

Join our team and contribute to our mission of improving healthcare through effective digital marketing. Apply now and embark on an exciting journey with us!

Please submit your updated resume and a cover letter highlighting your relevant experience to be considered for this position. We look forward to hearing from you.
