Sommario

The Strategic Assistant supports the Country President (CP) in daily business and manages strategic and innovative initiatives for the CP, Chief of Staff (CoS) and the German Country Leadership Team (CLT), with the aim of maximizing economic value and securing future competitive advantage in a highly complex market. The person will be responsible for managing the agenda and execution of key board meetings incl. CLT and business reviews. Acting as a strategic partner to the CP and CoS requires strong alignment and collaborating with the local leadership team, head office roles and the international strategic assistant community.

This role reports directly into the Chief of Staff and will work hand in hand with the Staff & Strategic Projects team.

About the Role

Major Accountabilities

Overarching aspects & sparring

- Serve as a strategic partner to the CP, handling inquiries and developing action plans to address them in a timely manner
- Support and advise CP and CoS on larger strategy across units and functions with an enterprise view and provide expert consultation during all phases
- Serve as link to CP and CLT for broader organization, translating and disseminating CP and CLT perspectives, as well as collecting, aggregating and providing upwards feedback to the CP and CLT

Meetings & Events

- Coordinate and organize internal and external key strategic meetings and events (e.g. CLT, business reviews, country visits) including taking responsibility for preparation of agenda, meeting facilitation and the creation of meeting minutes
- Support CP on internal (e.g. General Assemblies, Supervisory Board Meetings) and external engagements (e.g. stakeholder meetings and speaker engagements at external events) with presentation preparation, talking points and meeting follow-up, taking ownership for next steps

Projects & Initiatives

- Support and coordinate large, often cross-business unit-wide projects and initiatives assigned by the CP, CoS, or their delegates

- Take ownership and lead selected strategic initiatives from project scoping, creating content and managing of stakeholders to generate insights and prepare outputs with the aim to develop recommendations that enable informed decisions of the CP, CoS and CLT

Ad-hoc / decision support

- Support the CP and CoS with business case elaboration, scenario analysis, and presentations in respect of strategy and priorities of Novartis Germany
- Frame and break down complex business problems into key components, design analysis to develop actionable insights, and answers to critical questions while recommending practical solutions to get results
- Collect, analyze and summarize complex data, information and knowledge for decision making (e.g. market data, competition, industry trends, regulations, patients and providers, etc.) through quantitative and qualitative methods as well as internal and external data sources

Link to broader organization / stakeholder management

- Align and partner closely with senior executives and other stakeholders at country, functional and global level as defined by the requirements of the different initiatives
- Drive and guide CLT on aligned priorities and key initiatives
- Drive the local community of “head office” roles to foster x-unit alignment also on operational level
- Build and extend solid network with International, Region Europe and Global

Essential requirements - Education and work experience:

- Master of Science / MBA
- Several years of management consulting experience
- Experience in the German healthcare market (pharmaceutical industry)
- Fluent in German and English (spoken and written)
- Strong analytical skills & critical thinking
- Strategic thinking & creativity
- Ability to collaborate and align across functions and divisions
- Workshop and board meeting facilitation
