Job description summary:

One of the most important functions in today's biopharmaceutical industry is patient services. As ease of accessing HCP prescribed medications has become more difficult, the ability of a company to build, design, implement, and run dynamic end-to-end patient support offerings has become critical to patients successfully starting and staying on therapy.

The role of the Program Operation Manager is to support product and program strategy for [Disease Area / Product]. This role supports ongoing planning, evaluation/measurement, and optimization of short-term and long-term program performance to enable impact for Novartis and patients. This includes day-to-day management and monitoring of all NPS programs and services (onboarding, co-pay, adherence, e-services, hub operations), and pull-through of customer-facing resources to support field execution of [Disease Area / Product] programs. Serves as the primary contact between NPS field associates and HQ on program operations and patient access and reimbursement content deployment.

This associate will collaborate closely with the Director of NPS Program Strategy and Management for [Disease Area / Product] on program evolution through the product life cycle. Additionally, they will liaise with multiple NPS Centers of Excellence and cross-functional teams.
