Sommario

Novartis is seeking motivated individuals to join our Novartis Leadership Trainee Program (NLTP) in the Marketing division. This 12-month program is designed to provide recent graduates with accelerated training in the Pharmaceutical Commercial field. As a trainee, you will have the opportunity to gain real-world, hands-on experience in important roles and projects, while promoting personal and professional growth.

You have finished your studies and are looking for a challenging and engaging first full-time job opportunity?

This program is for you. You will occupy different positions (mainly in brand management sphere), work with different mentors, and develop a deep understanding of the business but also of the Novartis culture.

You will bring your whole unique self to work.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Organizing and managing local and national events, such as seminars, symposia, and congresses
- Supporting the planning and delivery of internal events, including cycle meetings and product launches
- Planning and implementing local promotional and non-promotional campaigns, including designing, creating, and analyzing outcomes
- Collaborating with agencies and stakeholders to implement different physical and digital assets
- Providing administrative support by participating in the design and implementation of new projects
- Facilitating information exchange between marketing and sales teams
- Consolidating project outcome presentations and meeting minutes
- Ensuring all activities and projects comply with legal and compliance requirements
- Assisting with ad hoc translation for team members
- Cooperating with the medical department on scientific projects and implementation of global/regional/local strategies
- Participating in brand management activities, such as developing marketing plans, monitoring market trends, and identifying business development opportunities
- Possessing relevant medical knowledge of selected products and providing medical inputs to marketing strategy and advertising tools
- Anticipating future trends in disease management and market environment to maximize product performance

Essential Requirements:

- Master's degree in medicine, Pharmacy, Bioscience/Biomedical Engineering, Management, Economics, or Business Administration
- Strong academic performance
- Previous work, internship, or co-op experience
- Passion for learning and pursuing a career in the healthcare industry
- Strong organizational and problem-solving skills
- Ability to prioritize and manage multiple projects
- Adaptability to changing priorities and assignments
- Excellent interpersonal and leadership abilities
- Proven teamwork, innovation, and initiative
- Understanding of spontaneous adverse events reporting and technical complaints for pharmaceutical products

You'll receive:

- Competitive salary
- Monthly pension contribution matching your contribution up to 3% of your gross monthly base salary
- Company Shares Program
- Risk Life Insurance (full cost covered by Novartis)
- 5-week holiday per year (1 week above the Labour Law requirement) MultiSport Card (costs covered by the company)
